Library Newsletter

August 2024

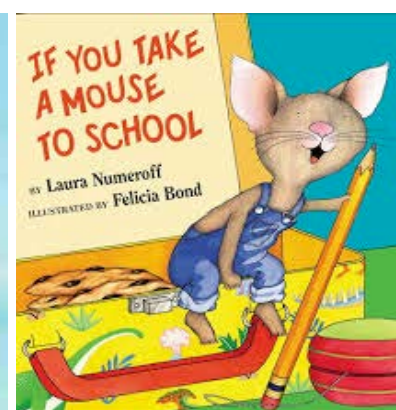

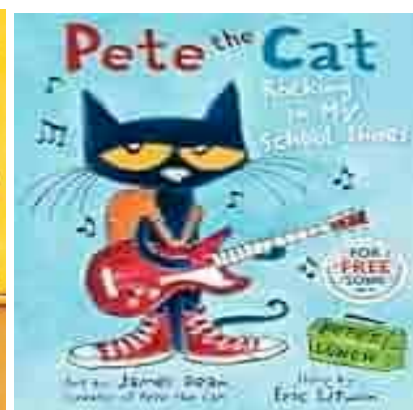

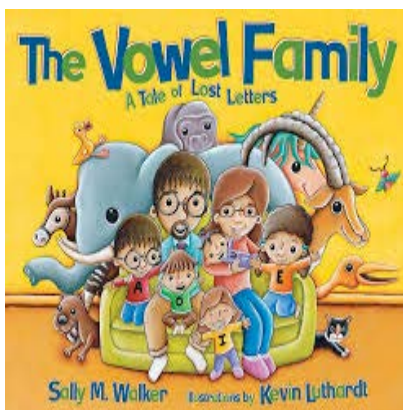

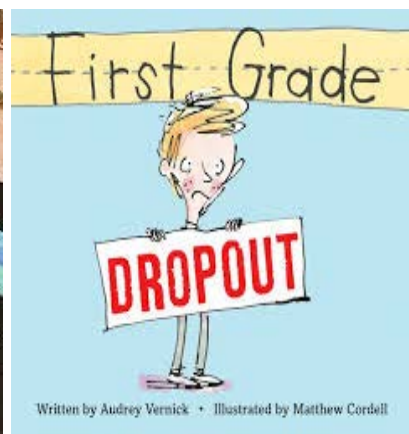

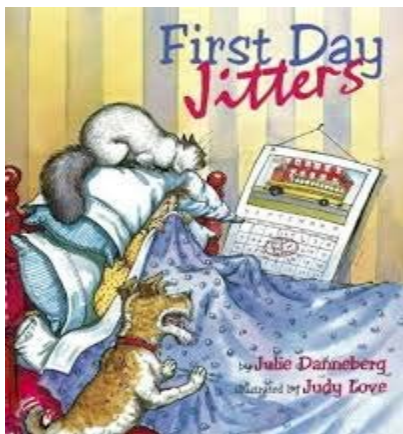

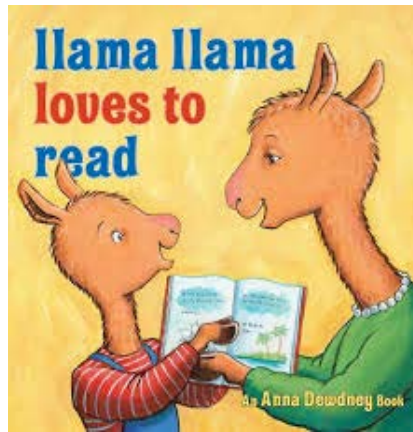

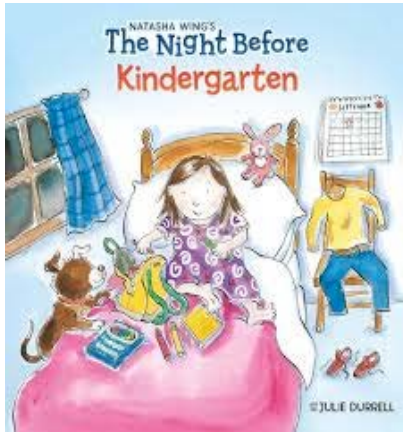

This month we will be showcasing literature that fits with “I Am A Learner” in both the fiction and nonfiction sections of the library. There is a wide range of books this month that show students different things to learn or people who have helped others to learn. Some of the books of this category will be displayed on the shelves throughout the library, but if you have any questions please ask! Also, check out the “Look At These Books!” section for the primary grades for books about starting school. Happy reading and learning!

Special Announcement

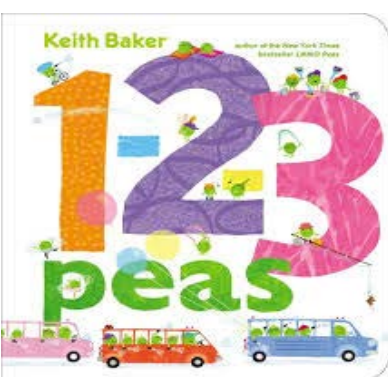

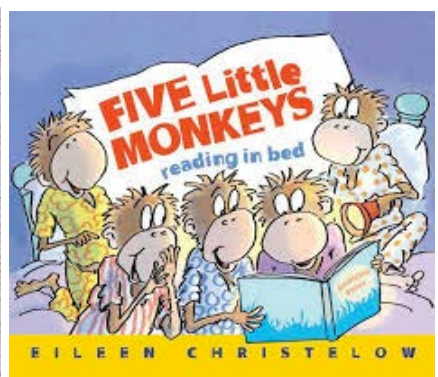

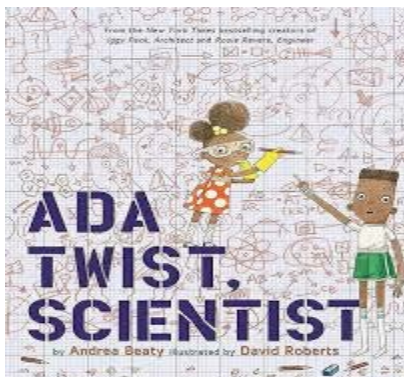

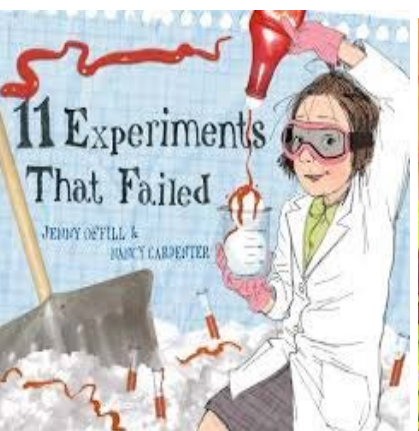

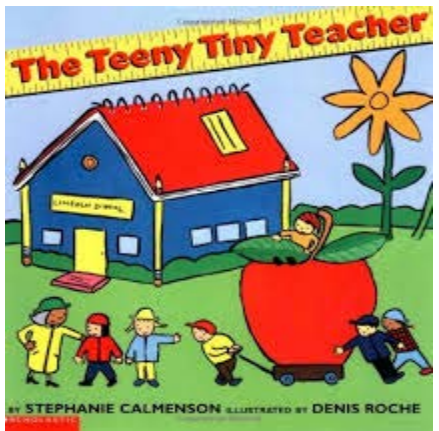

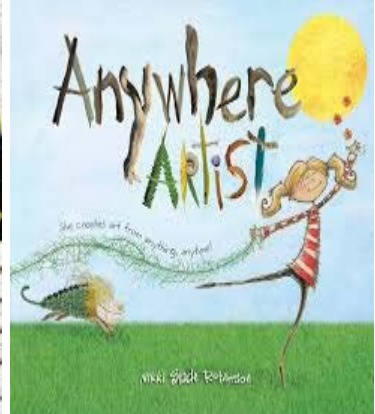

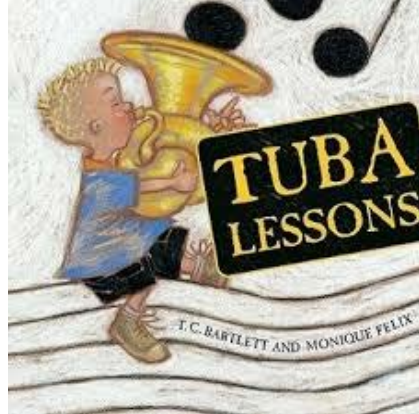

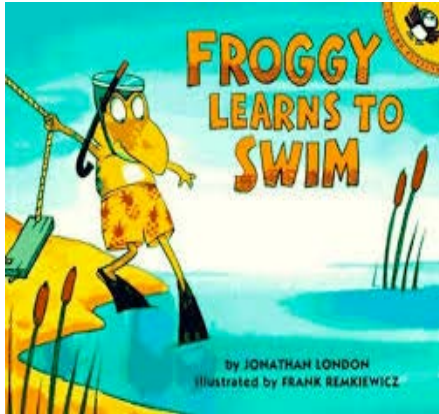

Mrs. Rogo had the opportunity this summer to meet Eucabeth Odhiambo, the author of She Persisted: Wangari Maathai, while she was visiting family in Kenya, Africa this summer. Ms. Odhiambo splits her time teaching future teachers at a college in Pennsylvania and spending holidays and breaks in Kenya. Ms. Odhiambo has graciously donated a signed copy of this book for our library! She hopes that all of our Holy Family students will always keep persisting in their hopes, dreams, and education.
